ORIENTATION and RULES for TRIAL UNIVERSE
For The Chosen

Included herein are the deviations from the status quo reality required for the Trial Universe. All the rules below are subject to change without notice by God and his agents. Only you, the Chosen, are allowed to see the rules behind the Trial Universe.

1. Loves Conquers All, the natural order rules, and Magic is real and is all around including angels disguised as humans. Evil shall always be feared and conquered, and Pandora's Box is closed and locked again. Only the nicest people live here, both real and fictional, and everyone meets at exactly the right age.

2. With notable exceptions, there shall be no bad accidents affecting humans or animals, nor natural disasters, disease, poison, birth defects and handicaps, bad teeth, baldness, disfiguring marks unless sexy, and there shall be no need for hospitals. Trees shall not fall unnecessarily and there shall be no animal bites, parasites (including "homeless"), dust, stench, over-population, pollution, uncomfortable weather, blight, or dogs that bark. Animals are prohibited from harming people, and vice-versa.

3. Humans (of any age) are incapable of murder, rape, causing physical pain, cruelty, expressing cruelty in words, theft, corruption, lying, spying, feuding, vandalism, arson, molestation of children, disbelief in God, creation of anti-social gangs or mobs, or wanting to be another sex or class.

4. Africa and Asia shall be uninhabitable for humans and of the previous occupants, there shall be absolutely no memory or record, except that Russian classical music and art shall survive.

5. The following inventions never happened and cannot be conceived: (1) the entire government, except for ceremonial purposes and minimal essential services; (2) guns, war, armies, bombs and other weapons except for pretend; (3) anything atomic; (4) aviation; (5) malls, parking lots, post-War suburbs, buildings higher than a church steeple or post-1930, arenas, subterranean drilling except for foundations (engines run on water), insurance, air rights, or OSHA. There shall be (6) no sirens, motorcycles, SUVs, RV's, vanity vehicles, interstates and the number of automobiles shall be vastly reduced; (7) electrical surveillance; portable phones, or secret cameras; (8) uncomfortable bedding; (9) food that is not fresh or flowers with no scent; (10) obnoxious noises or fumes like leaf blowers and wood-chippers; (11) devices which pierce the skin, anything relating to DNA or the alteration of God's work, the concept of tattoos, hair dye, mood drugs of any kind, man-made recreational drugs, and surgery such as circumcision; (10) co-education; (11) the color red except muted or as component of indivisible combination; (12) plastic where natural materials will suffice; (13) displays of bad taste in any form; (14) the word "woman" or the term "Ms."; (15) television except for teenage church groups; (16) monuments to yankees or any Theory of Evolution; (17) sports except boy's school or club baseball, wrestling, soccer, track, ring ball, tennis and croquet; (18) AIDS or "the pill"; (19) the Bible; (20) air-conditioning except in theatres; (22) Muzak; (23) hats which conceal boys' hair and facial hair for men (Santa excepted); (24) casinos except for Vegas and Reno; (24) shower as substitute for bathtub; and (25) there shall be no prohibition of private clubs, prostitution, or smoking.

6. Bodily functions shall be altered so that there is no need for bathrooms (which shall remain) and pregnancy and related female functions eliminated (The Stork brings babies). There shall be no obesity unless sexually charming, and no human shall be too short or too tall. Your body is on loan to you and is not to be desecrated in any way. The consumption of drugs, tobacco and alcohol shall make one feel better in the morning, not worse. Boys are born circumcised.

7. Humans shall know when they meet their mate (of the opposite sex) when they both hear the same music inside, but they won't know it's going to happen until it does; and all men and girls, married and unmarried, shall be guaranteed at least one best friend for life, from childhood. Identical male twins are considered holy.

8. There shall be created no images of evil; images of beauty are holy.

9. There shall be three classes of humans, patrician, upper middle, and servant, and in all classes, man ranks above girl. One's superiors shall be respected, eye-contact made only when granted, and servants shall not be seduced. Upper boys attend prep school, catholic school, high school or trade school and upper girls attend C&S (Cooking & Secretarial) where they are trained as mates, librarians, secretaries, pianists, actors, nurses, teachers, baby-sitters, whores, or spinsters who specialize. Servants shall attend trade school. The only colleges shall be gothic, private four year institutions for boys limited to four hundred and populated with wise and kindly retired professors who smoke pipes. Churches shall include a beautifully appointed and windowed activities room where each day neighborhood wives shall gather for coffee, smokes, exercise, gossip, and charitable work.
